Quality Control Process

We are quality conscious company with sophisticated instruments like HPLC (shimadzu and Agilent make), GC, spectrophotometer, polarimeter, autotitrator, KF etc, to check the in-process and finished product quality. Most of our analytical chemists working in QC have years of experience in quality control and have been trained in this field to provide high quality products to the customers.

Our quality control procedure include : Raw material testing, In-process monitoring and final product analysis and its stability testing.

We have process development laboratory to develop new products and cost reduction of exiting product by improving the manufacturing process.

Research & Development

Innovation in Pharmaceuticals is not Possible without Research & Development. Asiatic Drugs and Pharmaceuticals driven by its passion for adhering to International quality standards has created an excellent in-house R&D centre, focussed on identifying and manufacturing high value added, complex new molecules for introduction in the generic market.

We are working on Heterocyclic compounds, Drug Intermediates, custom Synthesis projects, Full-Time programmes and various other API-Intermediates.

We undertake custom synthesis projects , develop molecules from mg to kg level. Typically it takes about 3-5 weeks to develop less complicated molecules and about 8-10 weeks for multi step molecules.

We also work on the synthesis schemes provided to us by our buyers .We are developing molecules in greener way - by reducing or avoiding solvents and using less energy intensive techniques .

Environment, Health & Safety Policy
